Support provided by Perry and Phillips

Due to the restrictions as a result of Covid-19 in March 2020, Perry and Phillips tailored the bereavement support they offered families, below are the options available for those families and individuals who feel they need that extra support.

SupportTalk

Supportive chat with our trained counsellor, Jen Brown, via telephone or video call. This free of charge service, provided by Perry and Phillips, enables those who may not feel comfortable engaging in groups, feel isolated or having difficulty leaving home to have a confidential chat, be heard and supported.

Group Bereavement Counselling Sessions With Jen

This free of charge service, provided by Perry and Phillips, provides an informal space where you can talk, share or simply listen and be given helpful information and coping strategies.

Dates of these monthly sessions can be found on: www.perryandphillipsfunerals.com

One-To-One Bereavement Counselling

Bereavement counselling tailored to individual needs, can also be booked directly with Jen Brown as private sessions at her confidential therapy space in Bridgnorth.

Bridgnorth Anglican Church Team Bereavement Support

Informal support offered by the Church, provided by trained volunteers; this support is more relaxed but can offer that ongoing support network provided by the Church throughout the Bridgnorth area.

If you are interested in any of the above services, please contact Perry and Phillips on 01746 765255 or email: enquiries@perryandphillipsfunerals.com
